Hi there Moon Sister!

I'm Magdalena Chandrakai and for over a decade, I've worked with women like you - both privately and in shamanic circles and ceremonies - aiding them towards living in tune with their inner and outer moon cycles to be able to increase their energy levels, time and to follow their dreams.

After +20 years of studying, practicing and integrating shamanism, moon wisdoms, herbalism, astrology, yoga, Ayurveda, ancient women teachings, channeled messages and more, I've developed practices that take us into our bodies, psyche and souls, while gently inviting the conscious mind to accept and re-pattern our behaviors.

The result is a loving yet powerful and embodied transformation that enhances your spiritual leadership.

If you feel called to go deeper in the moon work with me, and get to know each other a little more, join my Free Moon Letters here or on www.bymagie.com

In my work, I've found that the most efficient way to increase our energy, time and to live our dreams is when we align with the divine feminine and her natural cycles. Therefore, I've put together 4 steps you can integrate in your life right now to start aligning with these natural cycles.

The Free Roadmap to Live in Tune With the Moon is a good compliment to your Moon Calendar. Get it for free here.

Never hesitate to reach out to me and our moon community of like minded sisters should you need support.

In love, Ometeotl
